

1. Use Biography in Context, iCONN.org, to research your guitarist and his or her style of playing. To access Biography in Context, you must click on the middle school link from the main iCONN page - on left hand side

More iCONN Content ...

- Newspapers
- CT Digital Collections
- Online Magazines
- Search Individual Resources
 - High School
 - Middle School
 - Elementary School
- Other Useful Sites
- Job Seeking Resources
- Free E-Books
- Downloadable Audiobooks

2. Complete the Guitarist Research Notes Table (on the Wiki page)
3. Write five paragraphs in the following format:

Paragraph 1

Introduction

Be sure to include a definition of your guitarist's playing style. (Some guitarists may have more than one.) Describe any unique techniques your guitarist invented or mastered.

Paragraph 2

Biography

This should be your longest paragraph. Give some background information on the artist. Write some interesting facts about your guitarist's life. Include at least 2 interesting stories about his or her childhood or early adulthood.

Paragraph 3

Discography

Name at least 2 albums or songs your guitarist has released. Who or what are some influences on your guitarist's life? What types of music influenced this artist?

Paragraph 4

Legacy

Who has your guitarist influenced? What legacy has he or she left to the world of music? How has he changed the musical world?

Paragraph 5

Conclusion

What are the most important or interesting facts or stories you learned about this guitarist?